

A Yiddish speaking Ashkenazi Jewish woman was saying on this video that she was an Egyptian Jew and bitterly complaining about life in Egypt. I guess it did not occur to her to return home to where she had come from. Make sure to press on the 4 arrows to watch it on full screen.

Her name is Marcelle Haroun (Marcelle Halfon) the widow of lawyer Shehata Haroun (Rene Silvera). The woman calls herself 'Egyptian Jew' but she speaks only Yiddish. She was pretending as if her family history was from Egypt while carefully hiding where she came from.

Magda Haroun, the president of Egypt's 5-members-only Jewish community, is the daughter of Marcelle Haroun (Marcelle Halfon) and Shehata Haroun (Rene Silvera).

Her mother spoke only Yiddish but Magda is always trying to pretend that she is of Egyptian origin and she certainly is not. She is constantly complaining about life for the only 5 Jews in Egypt - and none of them are of Egyptian origin.

Carmen Weinstein Leader of Egypt's Jewish community found guilty of fraud. Carmen Weinstein had been accused of defrauding an Egyptian businessman.

The problem often is that once they arrive in an Arab country, then they become 'Egyptian Jews' - never disclosing where they had arrived from.

This woman's name is Levana Vidal Zamir and she claims to be an Egyptian Jew. Nothing about her is Egyptian. She said her Egyptian roots stretch back more than 2,000 years to Hellenistic times. That is just identity theft. She also said: her family recipes she had inherited went right back to the biblical "fleshpots of Egypt". That makes it easier for her to appropriate Egyptian recipes and claim them as her own. If she did her DNA today, it will come back as 100% Ashkenazi.

This woman's name is Dina Gabay Levin and she claims to be a Moroccan Jew. Yea, Levin appears to be a common Moroccan name, huh? She said: "We left in the night and rushed to the ship ... oppression Jews experienced in their role as dhimmis under Muslim rule."

The ungrateful woman was of foreign origin and why even move to Morocco? In 1954 when she said she left, the French were in total control of Morocco.
